

DO YOU HAVE VITILIGO?

Vitiligo is a condition where the skin loses its pigment cells causing patches of discolored skin to appear. Although there is no cure, local physicians are working to better understand the condition and are currently conducting a clinical trial evaluating an investigational medication for those with Vitiligo. If you have a Vitiligo diagnosis, this study opportunity may be right for you.

Find out more today!

Qualified participants must:

- Be 18-75 years of age
- Be diagnosed with non-segmental Vitiligo for at least 6 months
- Have facial and body involvement
- Additional criteria apply

Qualified participants may:

- See a study dermatologist or medical staff at no cost
- Have access to investigational medication
- Receive compensation for time and travel

757-625-0151

VCRSTUDIES.COM